

Infusion Express Announces Philadelphia Market Expansion with Three Centers in Convenient Locations

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 1, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Infusion Express, a patient-focused alternative to hospital-based infusion centers, today announced its expanded commitment to the Philadelphia-area market.

Infusion Express is redefining the care experience for those with complex chronic conditions by offering a superior level of service in a cost-effective site of care. For patients receiving ongoing infusion or injection therapy, Infusion Express offers guaranteed private suites, large screen TVs, high-speed Wi-Fi, leather recliners with chairs for guests, and flexible, on-demand scheduling, including evening and weekend appointments.

"We are thrilled to expand our footprint in the Philadelphia health care community," said Doug Ghertner, CEO, Infusion Express. "We believe our patient-centric model will give those with a chronic condition a new option for ongoing care. And, we're thrilled to partner with local hospitals and physicians to bring a unique offering that puts safety, comfort and convenience above all else."

"Infusion Express' expanded presence in the Philadelphia market is a needed and welcomed resource," stated Cade Leitzel, Chief Executive Officer of CritAcuity Medical Group, a regional Pulmonary and Sleep Medicine practice and Intensivist Staffing and Management company.

"They complete the prior authorization and benefits eligibility process on our behalf, which makes referring patients quick and simple. Also, the convenience of their local centers and scheduling flexibility makes it easier for patients to adhere to a prescribed treatment protocol."

Treatments at Infusion Express cover a wide variety of conditions such as Crohn's disease, ulcerative colitis, rheumatoid arthritis, allergic asthma, multiple sclerosis, plaque psoriasis and lupus. Infusion Express also provides treatments for iron deficiencies, enzyme replacement, and other ongoing conditions.
